

Approved Exemption Claims Procedure

*CILEX Professional Qualification
(CPQ)*

V4.0 FINAL
Issue date: January 2026

Introduction

1. This procedure sets out how trainees claim approved exemptions. The qualifications which have been approved for exemption are set out in Appendix 1. In addition, exemptions are in place for trainees who have successfully completed units from the CILEX Level 3 Certificate/Diploma in Law and Practice or the CILEX Level 6 Professional Diploma in Law and Practice as set out in Appendix 2. This procedure should be read in conjunction with the CILEX Exemptions Policy – CILEX Professional Qualification.

Scope

2. This procedure applies to trainees seeking to claim approved exemptions, and CILEX staff involved in processing approved exemption claims.

Holders of Law degrees/Professional Legal Qualifications approved by CILEX:

3. Holders of a Law Degree (LLB), Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL), Legal Practice Course (LPC), Bar Training Course (BTC, formally BPTC) or Solicitors Qualifying Examination 1 (SQE 1) will first be required to:
 - complete a CILEX membership application, including the declaration of prior conduct
 - indicate their prior law qualification(s)
 - provide evidence (certificate and transcript) of their prior law qualification(s)
4. Once CILEX has approved the qualification evidence, trainees will be made a CILEX member and will be able to purchase the relevant CPQ product in accordance with the approved exemptions set out in Appendix 1.

Holders of approved qualifications from other awarding organisations (CILEX exemption reference - AO Foundation or AO Advanced):

5. Holders of qualifications from other awarding organisations listed in Appendix 1 with the CILEX Exemption Reference: AO Foundation or AO Advanced should become a member of CILEX and apply for the CPQ Foundation Stage or CPQ Advanced Stage.
6. Once enrolled on the Foundation Stage or Advanced Stage, trainees must log in to myCILEX and select Request CPQ Module Exemption under My CPQ.
7. Trainees should choose Request Exemption against the module/s for which they are seeking exemption, in accordance with the exemption information provided in Appendix 1.
8. CILEX may contact a trainee to discuss their exemption claim if queries arise.

Holders of the Level 3 Paralegal Apprenticeship or CILEX Level 3 Certificate in Law & Practice:

9. Holders of the Level 3 Paralegal Apprenticeship or the CILEX Level 3 Certificate in Law & Practice should become a member of CILEX, if they are not already, and apply for the CPQ.
10. The exemptions that holders of the CILEX Level 3 Certificate in Law & Practice are eligible for are set out in Appendix 2. Trainees will be presented with the Bridging Product options to allow the completion of outstanding CPQ Foundation Stage modules. These Bridging Product options are set out in Appendix 2. It is paramount that the correct Bridging Product is selected. Once a trainee has purchased a Bridging Product, they will be exempt from the relevant CPQ Foundation module(s) as outlined in Appendix 2.
11. The exemptions that holders of the Level 3 Paralegal Apprenticeship are eligible for are set out in Appendix 1. Trainees will be presented with the Bridging Product options designed for those who have completed the Level 3 Paralegal Apprenticeship. These Bridging Product options are set out in Appendix 2. It is paramount that the correct Bridging Product is selected.

Holders of CILEX Level 3 Diploma in Law and Practice or Level 6 Certificate/Diploma in Law and Practice units

12. Trainees will first be required to become a member of CILEX (if they are not already).
13. Trainees should then register on the CPQ and will be presented with the CPQ Stage to enrol on.
14. Trainees must log in to myCILEX and select Request CPQ Module Exemption under My CPQ.
15. Trainees should choose Request Exemption against the module/s for which they are seeking exemption. The exemptions available are set out in Appendix 2.
16. CILEX may contact a trainee to discuss their exemption claim if queries arise.

Holders of qualifications not yet approved by CILEX

17. CILEX will review qualifications or components of qualifications not set out in appendix 1 and 2.
18. The qualification or component must have been passed and there must be a certificate and transcript evidence of the award date and pass status.
19. The qualification or component must be based wholly on the law of England and Wales.
20. The awarding organisation or training provider must be clear, and their contact details provided.
21. A detailed syllabus from the awarding organisation or training provider must be provided to enable CILEX to conduct detailed mapping against the CPQ.

17. An application, made through the website, will be reviewed within 3 weeks of receipt and next steps communicated.

Outcome of exemption claim

22. CILEX will confirm the exemptions which have been approved and apply the exemptions to the trainee's CILEX record, as applicable.

Timeline

23. CILEX will process claims for approved exemptions within 10 working days.

Fees

Holders of law degrees/professional qualifications approved by CILEX or holders of the Level 3 Paralegal Apprenticeship or CILEX Level 3 Certificate in Law & Practice.

24. Holders of law degrees/professional qualifications approved by CILEX are referred to the CILEX CPQ Fees which set out the prices for the relevant CPQ products and associated exemptions fees.
25. Holders of the Level 3 Paralegal Apprenticeship or CILEX Level 3 Certificate in Law & Practice will purchase the Bridging Products containing the CPQ modules that must be completed. These fees are set out in the CILEX CPQ Fees.
26. Should an exemption request be submitted to CILEX against a module included within the product purchased, and which has been purchased through the modular payment option, the module for which exemption is being requested must first be purchased before an exemption request can be submitted.
27. There will be no refunds for modules approved for exemptions within the products purchased/enrolled on.

Holders of approved qualifications from other awarding organisations (CILEX exemption reference - AO Foundation) or holders of CILEX Level 3 Diploma in Law and Practice or Level 6 Diploma in Law and Practice units.

28. Holders of approved qualifications from other awarding organisations (exemption reference: AO Foundation), or holders of a CILEX Level 3 Diploma in Law and Practice or Level 6 Diploma in Law and Practice units, will first purchase/enrol on the CPQ Stage presented (Foundation Stage - CILEX Diploma in Law or Advanced Stage - CILEX Advanced Diploma in Law & Practice). Exemption requests submitted to CILEX against a module, in accordance with the exemptions detailed in Appendix 1 and Appendix 2, will incur no charge for the exemption if the CPQ Stage has been purchased in full.
29. If the CPQ Stage (Foundation Stage - CILEX Diploma in Law or Advanced Stage - CILEX Advanced Diploma in Law & Practice) has been purchased through the modular payment option, the module for which exemption is being requested must first be purchased before an exemption request can be submitted.

30. There will be no refunds for modules approved for exemptions within the CPQ Stage enrolled on.

Retention of materials

31. CILEX retains exemption claims and supporting evidence for 12 months after the exemption claim has been processed.

Review arrangements

32. This procedure is subject to a three-year review cycle. However, the procedure may be reviewed more frequently to address operational feedback or concerns brought to the attention of CILEX to ensure the procedure remains fit for purpose.
33. This procedure and the associated policy are also reviewed as part of CILEX ongoing quality improvement monitoring.
