2020 UNIT SPECIFICATION

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title:</th>
<th>(Unit 7) Family Law</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Level:</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Credit Value:</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Learning outcomes

The learner will:

1. Understand the underlying legal principles of marriage

Assessment criteria

The learner can:

1.1 Identify sources of relevant Family Law including statutes and common law

Knowledge, understanding and skills

1.1 A clear understanding of the breadth of relevant legislation:

Reference to the introduction of Marriage (Same Sex Couples) Act 2013 and The Children and Families Act 2014.

This specification is for 2020 examinations
| | | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.2</td>
<td>Explain common law definitions of marriage</td>
<td>1.2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3</td>
<td>Analyse the requirements for valid marriage</td>
<td>1.3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4</td>
<td>Explain the importance of the Gender Recognition Act 2004</td>
<td>1.4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

This specification is for 2020 examinations
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1.5</th>
<th>Analyse the concept of domicile and foreign marriages</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.6</td>
<td>Analyse the importance of consortium in marriage</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.7</td>
<td>Apply the law on the underlying principles of marriage to a given situation</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The effects of GRA on married applicants, eg, new ground for a voidable marriage and nullity petition must be issued within 6 months of the issue of interim gender recognition certificate.

1.5 The importance of the concept of domicile:
- governs an individual’s capacity to marry and validity of the marriage, as domicile links a person with a legal system;
- reference to Domicile and Matrimonial Proceedings Act 1973, analysis of the ways in which it can be acquired; ie, application, capacity and validity of marriage;
- relevant case law Irvin v Irvin (2001), Agulian v Cyganik (2006);
- circumstances when a marriage celebrated abroad will be recognised in England and Wales;

1.6 Analysis to distinguish obligations and rights conferred by marriage and how these rights can be lost, illustrate with case law such as Best v Samuel Fox & Co (1952). Consider the differences between same sex marriages and heterosexual marriage and the impact of Consortium in both.

1.7 Application of the law to a complex scenario.
2. Understand the underlying legal principles of adult partnerships

| 2.1 | Analyse the legal differences between marriage and cohabitation |
| 2.2 | Analyse the main provisions of the Civil Partnership Act 2004 |

2.1

- An understanding of the rights of partners in marriage, e.g., financial support, rights of occupation, property award, children issues, rights to application of sec 8 orders under Children Act 1989;
- Financial support;
- Property rights; analysis of how cohabitation contracts are becoming popular due to social change and importance in financial matters on breakdown of a relationship;
- Summary of how court may uphold such contracts as found in relevant case law such as, eg, Sutton v Mishcon de Reya and Another (2004); Gow v Grant (2012); impact of Law Commission Report – Cohabitation:
  - The Financial Consequences of Relationship Breakdown 2007;
  - Cohabitation Rights Bill.

2.2

- The purpose and features of CPA 2004, requirements of capacity (S.3(1) CPA 2004) and formalities similar to marriage, allowing same sex partners to register partnerships and have legal rights similar to those of married couples, e.g., property rights, financial and inheritance provisions, pension rights; relevant case law, e.g., Wilkinson v Kitzinger (2006);
- Impact of Marriage (Same Sex Couples) Act 2013 extension of civil marriage to same-sex couples/existing civil partners to convert civil
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>2.3</th>
<th>Apply the law on the underlying legal principles of adult partnerships to a given situation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2.3</td>
<td>Critically evaluate a given issue or situation to predict probable legal implications</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.3</td>
<td>Application of the law to a complex scenario.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.4</td>
<td>A reasoned opinion of likely legal implications, including remedies and defences, where appropriate.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Partnership into a marriage; the fact that the Civil Partnership Act does not apply to heterosexual couples;
- Protection from violence and molestation: similar rights to those who are married e.g. applying for non-molestation and occupation orders. An analysis of the following CPA 2004 provisions:
  - Financial and property awards on breakdown of civil partnership:
  - S44 Civil Partnership Act 2004;
  - Separation order:
  - S56 Civil Partnership Act 2004;
  - Articles 8, 12 and 14 ECHR. The possible extension of the Civil Partnership Act to heterosexual couples,
  - Steinfeld v Secretary of State for Education Supreme Court decision (2018) and the government’s promise to open up civil partnership to opposite sex couples.
| 3. Understand the underlying legal principles of nullity in marriage | 3.1 Explain statutory provisions of invalidity and annulment in marriage
- S.49 and S.50 CPA 2004;
- Family Law Act 1986;
- differentiation between void and voidable marriages;
- recognition of the importance of an overseas decree of nullity, divorce and legal separation as described in s46(1) and (2) Family Law Act 1986;
- relevant case law, eg, Dredge v Dredge (1947), Baxter v Baxter (1947), S v S (1962), Ford v Ford (1987), Morgan v Morgan (1959), Mehta v Mehta (1945), Singh v Singh (1971); Szechter v Szechter (1971);
- Hirani v Hirani (1982);
- H v H (1954);
- An explanation of sections 11, 12 and 13 of Matrimonial Causes Act 1973;
- Family Law Act 1986;
- differentiation between void and voidable marriages;
- recognition of the importance of an overseas decree of nullity, divorce and legal separation as described in s46(1) and (2) Family Law Act 1986;
- relevant case law, eg, Dredge v Dredge (1947), Baxter v Baxter (1947), S v S (1962), Ford v Ford (1987), Morgan v Morgan (1959), Mehta v Mehta (1945), Singh v Singh (1971); Szechter v Szechter (1971);
- Hirani v Hirani (1982);
- H v H (1954);
| 3.2 Analyse the legal consequences of a void marriage | 3.2 An explanation of s11 of MCA1973, the grounds and the impact of bars under s13 MCA 1973 on the granting of an order;
- analysis of the main legal consequences of a void marriage, re property, descendants, inheritance and finance, e.g., effects on the granting of an order on children, property and financial orders available to either spouse, effect on wills and inheritance, relevant case law. |
3.3 Analyse the legal consequences of a voidable marriage

An explanation of s12 MCA 1973, the grounds and the impact of bars under s13 MCA 1973 on the granting of an order;
- S.16 MCA 1973 analysis of the main legal consequences of a voidable marriage, re property, descendants, inheritance and finance, e.g. effects of the granting of an order on property;
- Re Roberts (deceased) (1978), and financial orders available to either spouse; Matrimonial Causes Act 1973, and effect on wills; S.18A Wills Act 1837, and effects on inheritance; Inheritance (PFD) Act 1975.

3.4 Explain the jurisdiction of the courts in England and Wales when considering petition cases for nullity

An explanation of the requirements for jurisdiction;
- reference to Brussels II Revised and Domicile and Matrimonial Proceedings Act 1973, an identification of the importance of domicile/habitual residence and its effects with supporting case law, eg, Kapur v Kapur (1985);
- Armstrong v Armstrong (2003);
- Mark v Mark (2006);
- Marinos v Marinos (2007).

3.5 Explain, in outline, the acceptance of foreign decrees of nullity by courts in England and Wales

Explanation of the requirements set out in s46 Family Law Act 1986 recognising that if s46 is fulfilled, then it is still possible that the decree may not be recognised as found in s51 Family Law Act 1986.

3.6 Apply the law on the underlying legal principles of nullity to a given situation

Application of the law to a complex scenario.
| 3.7 | Critically evaluate a given issue or situation to predict probable legal implications | 3.7 | A reasoned opinion of likely legal implications, including remedies and defences, where appropriate. |
| 4. | Understand the underlying legal principles of dissolution of marriage, civil partnership and judicial separation | 4.1 | Explain the requirements for divorce | 4.1 | An explanation of divorce law as found in Matrimonial Causes Act 1973;
- ground for divorce S.3 (1) MCA 1973 and S.3(2) MCA 1973, divorce must be supported by one of the 5 facts under s1 MCA 1973;
- a clear understanding of this provision;
- the bars to divorce as set out in s2 MCA 1973, and defences of S.5 and S.10 MCA 1973. Understanding of the No fault divorce bill and the perceived need for no fault divorce. Relevant case law for facts of divorce, particularly Clarkson v Clarkson (1930);
- Dennis v Dennis (1955);
- Cleary v Cleary (1974);
- Livingstone-Stallard v Livingstone-Stallard (1974);
- Thurlow v Thurlow (1976);
- Mouncer v Mouncer (1972) and Santos v Santos (1972), Owens v Owens (2018) Supreme Court decision. |
| 4. | | 4.2 | Analyse the requirements of a decree absolute and decree nisi | 4.2 | Analysis of court’s requirements under s1(4) MCA 1973;
- To include statement findings of reconciliation in Family Procedure Rules 2010 and s6(1) MCA 1973;
- schedule for the application of decree absolute available to both parties;
- circumstances when the court will delay granting of a decree absolute under MCA 1973. |
| 4.3 | Explain the law on divorce and dissolution of religious marriages |
| 4.4 | Explain the legal requirements on dissolution of Civil Partnerships |
| 4.5 | Analyse the requirements for judicial separation |

4.3
An explanation of the Divorce (Religious Marriages) Act 2002 identifying why it was introduced, its key provisions and the remedies it provides.

4.4
An explanation that Civil Partnership can only be brought to an end by a court order or if one of the parties dies;
- the court has powers to grant 3 orders;
- a Dissolution order only if the parties have been married for a year;
- a Separation order under S.56-S.57 CPA 2004 which can be applied for at any time;
- an order of Annulment.

4.5
An explanation that parties to judicial separation can institute proceedings under s17 MCA 1973;
- ground for judicial separation is one of the 5 facts under s1 MCA 1973;
- a clear understanding of this provision;
- implications of a refusal under S.41 MCA 1973;
- analysis of the following: financial relief available on separation under ss23, 24 and 24A MCA 1973; including the case of AR V JR (2018)
- parties relieved from duty to cohabit;
- neither party may succeed to property on the intestacy of the other; parties cannot re-marry.
4.6 Apply the law on dissolution of marriage, civil partnership and judicial separation to a given situation

4.7 Critically evaluate a given issue or situation to predict probable legal implications

4.6 Application of the law to a complex scenario.

4.7 A reasoned opinion of likely legal implications, including remedies and defences, where appropriate.

5. Understand statutory provisions for protection from violence and molestation

5.1 Explain statutory provisions for protection from violence

5.2 Explain rights of occupation and orders which can be obtained

5.1 An explanation of the purpose and consequences of:
- Family Law Act 1996 (Part IV) (identification of associated persons, cohabitants and relevant child under s62 FLA 1996);
- Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 (DVCVA);

5.2 An explanation of the criteria under s33-38 FLA 1996;
- powers of the court to make orders;
- matters to be taken into account; balance of harm;
- duration of orders; regulatory orders;
- additional powers s40 FLA 1996 and Schedule 7 FLA 1996;
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>5.3</th>
<th>Analyse those orders available for non-molestation and protection from violence</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5.4</td>
<td>Apply the law on protection from violence and non-molestation to a given situation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.5</td>
<td>Critically evaluate a given issue or situation to predict probable legal implications</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(2009) and recognition of the President’s Practice Guidance dated 18 January 2017 regarding the duration of ex parte orders.

5.3 Analysis of the importance of s42 Family Law Act 1996, clarifying court’s power to make an order/s as part of ancillary or other family proceedings under s42 FLA 1996;
- orders and criteria for without notice orders under s45 FLA 1996;
- undertakings:
- s46 FLA 1996;
- enforcement and the impact of S.42A FLA 1996 since DVCVA 2004:
- s47 FLA 1996; relevant case law examples to include; C v C (Family Division)(1998), George v George (1986) and Vaughan v Vaughan (1973);
- and on enforcement Hale v Tanner (2000) consideration of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997 which states any person may apply for order;

5.4 Application of the law to a complex scenario

5.5 A reasoned opinion of likely legal implications, including remedies and defences, where appropriate.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Understand provisions for family property and ownership</th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 6.1 | Explain the effects on property rights of a breakdown of relationships | 6.1 | An explanation of the property rights of cohabitants, civil partners and married couples;
- Relevant case law Pettitt v Pettitt (1970), Gissing v Gissing (1971) effects of relevant legislation;
- Married Women’s Property Act 1882 (MWPA) and the procedure to determine property rights under s17 MWPA 1882; the Law of Property Act 1925 which deals with legal and beneficial interests in land;
- Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 and powers of sale under ss14 and s15 TLATA 1996; Schedule 1 CA 1989 which deals with financial provision for children. |
| 6.2 | Analyse the impact of express and implied trusts on family property | 6.2 | An analysis comprising of the following headings at a minimum:
- monetary, gifts and family home; identification of implied trusts detailing different factors courts will take into account for spouses/civil partners and cohabitants clarifying impact of relevant case law, eg,) Lloyds Bank Plc v Rosset (1990); Grant v Edwards (1986); Midland Bank v Dobson (1986); Oxley v Hiscock (2004); Stack v Dowden (2007); Fowler v Barron (2008), Abbott v Abbott (2008), James v Thomas (2008), Jones v Kernott (2011) Capehorn v Harris (2015).
- Identifying and distinguishing sole name constructive trusts and joint name constructive trusts; a summary of the powers of court to order sale of property under s17 MWPA 1882 and s14 and s15 |

This specification is for 2020 examinations
|   | 6.3 Analyse acquisition, protection and enforcement of home rights in Family Law | 6.3 Analysis of definition of home rights for married couples or Civil Partners under s30(2) FLA 1996;
• establishing the size of the beneficial interest and relevant case law Crossley v Crossley (2005), Aspden v Elvy (2012), analysis of Law Commission Report 2007 entitled Cohabitation;
• The Financial Consequences of Relationship Breakdown;
• impact of Human Rights Act 1998 Art 8 ECHR. | 6.4 Apply the law on provisions for family property and ownership to a given situation 6.4 Application of the law to a complex scenario. | 6.5 Critically evaluate a given issue or situation to predict probable legal implications 6.5 A reasoned opinion of likely legal implications, including remedies and defences, where appropriate. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 7. Understand provisions for financial relief during and after marriage/civil partnership | 7.1 Explain the financial relief available after marriage/civil partnership | 7.1 An explanation of financial provision available after marriage:
• financial remedy orders, eg, maintenance pending suit: s22 MCA 1973;
• periodical payment orders: s23(1)(a) MCA 1973;
• lump sum orders: s23(1)(c) MCA 1973;
• pension orders: fss25B and 25C MCA 1973;
• property adjustment orders and relevant case law; |  |  |
7.2 Analyse the factors considered by the court in making an ancillary relief order

7.2 Analysis of s25 MCA1973 factors - first consideration to welfare of minor child;
- B v B (2002), Fisher-Aziz v Aziz (2010) clean break provisions in S.25A MCA 1973 and the S.25 statutory factors, the existence of pre and post nuptial agreements and appropriate and relevant case law which includes:
  - e.g White v White (2000) and its impact on financial relief, and subsequent case law, eg, Miller v Miller (2006);
  - McFarlane v McFarlane (2006);
  - Charman v Charman (2007);
  - L v L (Financial Relief) (2008);
  - Lambert v Lambert (2003);
  - M v M (2002)
  - Ella v Ella (2004)
  - McLeod v McLeod (2009)
  - V v V (2012)
- a summary of matters the court must consider when exercising its discretion to make orders. Reference to the divorce (financial provision) bill and Law Commission report on marital property, needs and agreements. Family Justice council guidance on Financial Needs on divorce.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>7.3</th>
<th>Analyse financial relief orders available for children</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Analysis of the definition of “child of family” under s52(1) MCA 1973;
- a clear understanding of Child Maintenance Service is the natural point for child support maintenance, Welfare Reform Act 2012, importance of top-up maintenance and of those orders available for the benefit of children, eg, periodical payments orders:
  - s23(1)(d) MCA 1973;
  - lump sum orders:
  - s23(1)(f) MCA 1973;
  - property adjustment orders: ss24(1)(a) and (b) MCA 1973;
- a summary of matters the court must consider when exercising its discretion to make orders under s25(1) MCA 1973;
- court must consider criteria under s25(4) MCA 1973 when making orders against a non-parent, s29 MCA 1973 duration of orders. |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>7.4</th>
<th>Explain the powers of the court to vary or discharge orders of financial relief</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| A brief explanation of the powers to vary and discharge as found under s31 MCA 1973;
- an identification of reasons why applications for variation and discharge mostly relate to periodical payments;

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>7.5</th>
<th>Identify the impact of Human Rights Act 1998 on ancillary relief proceedings</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

This specification is for 2020 examinations.
| 7.6 | Analyse the circumstances for an order of financial relief during marriage/civil partnership |
| 7.7 | Analyse the legal requirements for maintenance agreements |
| 7.8 | Apply the law on financial relief to a given situation |
| 7.9 | Critically evaluate a given issue or situation to predict probable legal implications |

| 7.6 | Analysis of circumstances when orders may be applied for and granted analysis of powers available to family court under (DPMCA 1978); |
| | • a summary of orders available under and factors under s1 and s2 DPMCA 1978; identification of welfare benefits available for spouse and children. Reference to Welfare Reform Act 2012. |
| 7.7 | An explanation of the formality requirements when making a maintenance agreement; |
| | • analysis of definitions as clarified under s34(2) MCA 1973; |
| 7.8 | Application of the law to a complex scenario. |
| 7.9 | A reasoned opinion of likely legal implications, including remedies and defences, where appropriate. |

| 8.1 | Identify the legal basis of parentage in family law |

8. Understand the legal basis of parental responsibility

| 8.1 | Identification of who is the “parent” as a legal definition with relevance of legitimacy; |
| | • a clear understanding of principles which determine parentage identified in s26 and s20(1) Family Law Reform Act 1969 (FLRA); |
| | • the importance of Family Law Reform Act 1969; |
| | • the impact of legitimacy in subsequent marriage; |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>8.2</th>
<th>Analyse the factors the court will consider in parentage identification cases</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 8.2 | An explanation of the orders available from the court to determine parentage;
| | • a summary of scientific tests to evidence parentage of child;
| | • and a child applying for a declaration of paternity under S.56 FLA 1986, consent requirement of child and inferences court can draw from refusal of consent; an analysis of the factors the court will consider in making orders, eg, child’s welfare is not the court’s paramount consideration in a decision for blood tests; the court can make order under s8 prohibiting steps or certain issues which may arise; the court can appoint guardian under s5(1) CA 1989. |
| • children of void and voidable marriages; children born by donor or artificial insemination; surrogacy;
| • Introduction of the HFEA 2008 (remedial) Order 2018
| • Law Commission working on a review of surrogacy arrangements in its 13th programme of reform. |
8.3 Analyse the concept of parental responsibility

8.4 Identify how parental responsibility orders can be acquired under CA 1989 and ACA 2002

8.3 Analysis of parental responsibility definition by s3(1) CA1989;
- parental responsibility can be held by more than 1 person at any time (s2(5) CA 1989);
- parental responsibility cannot be transferred or surrendered (s2(9) CA 1989);
- impact of HRA 1998 and Articles 8 and 14 ECHR 1998 and relevant case law;
- B v B (2000), identification of the effects of Adoption and Children’s Act 2002 and common law parental rights and duties;
- relevant case law to include: Gillick v West Norfolk and Wisbech Area Health Authority (1985): Gillick competence test; Re A (a Minor)(Blood Transfusion)(1993);
- Re G (Parental Responsibility: Education) (1994);

8.4 Identification of people who will have parental responsibility automatically and people who will need to apply;
- legal principles in obtaining a parental responsibility order:
  - parental responsibility order by agreement;
  - parental responsibility order under s4(1)(a) CA 1989;
- identification of the impact of Adoption and Children Act 2002 (ACA);
- identification of how parental responsibility order can be lost and factors the court must consider under ss4(2a) and 4(3) CA 1989 with supporting cases, eg, Re H (Minors)(LA; Parental Rights) (No3)(1991) Re P (terminating Parental Responsibility) (1995),
| 8.5 | Apply the law on parental responsibility to a given situation |
| 8.6 | Critically evaluate a given issue or situation to predict probable legal implications |

| 8.5 | Application of the law to a complex scenario. |
| 8.6 | A reasoned opinion of likely legal implications, including remedies and defences, where appropriate. |

| 9. | Understand relevant legal provision in relation to children |
| 9.1 | Explain the orders available for private matters under the Children Act 1989 (as amended by Children and Families Act 2014) |
| 9.2 | Analyse the availability of s8 orders under s8 CA 1989 |

| 9.1 | Principles of S.1 CA 1989; |
| 9.2 | Analysis of other proceedings where s8 order can be made as set out in s8(4) CA 1989; |

| 9.1 | welfare, no order, no delay. An explanation of the orders (Child Arrangements Order Prohibited Steps and Specific Issue) with examples of relevant case law available under s8 CA 1989; |
| 9.2 | • recognition that court can decide to make order of its own volition s10(1)(b); |

| 9.1 | • a summary of the lifespan of an order and the court’s powers to attach conditions or directions under s11 CA 1989; |
| 9.2 | • court can also make s8 order where there are no other proceedings in progress as in s10(2); |

| 9.1 | • identification to include without notice orders and impact of article 6 ECHR, reference to Children and Families Act 2014. |
| 9.2 | • analysis of who can apply under s10(4) CA 1989 and s4A CA 1989; |

This specification is for 2020 examinations
9.3 Analyse the effects of s8 orders in family law

- a summary of who can apply for orders and limitations under s10(5) CA 1989;
- identification of who will need to seek leave of court to apply for an order and criteria court will follow as under s10(9) CA 1989; a clear understanding of bars on repeat applications; relevant case law, eg, Re M (a Minor) (1994);
- Re S (a Child Residence Order; Condition) (No 2) (2003);

9.3 Analyse the law relating to contact and domestic violence with case law;

- Re: L;
- Re: V;
- Re: M;
- Re: H (Contact; domestic violence) (2000), analyse the law relating to implacably hostile cases with case law;
- Re: S (2004);
- Re: C (2007);
- V v T (2007);
- identify effects on parental responsibility of: non-parent under ss12(2) and (3) CA 1989, unmarried father under s4 CA 1989; identification of limitations under s13 CA 1989 removal of a child from jurisdiction, changes in surname, religion;
- relevant case law, e.g., Re H (Shared Residence; Parental Responsibility) (1995); D v D (Children) (Shared Residence Order) (2001);
- A v A (Shared Residence) (2004);
- Re M (Children) (2012)
- Re N (change of religion) (2011);
| 9.4 | Explain the powers of the court in family assistance orders |
| 9.5 | Analyse the key legal principles of the Children Act 1989 which courts consider in decisions regarding children |

- Re T (Change of surname) (1998);
- Payne v Payne (2001)
- welfare analysis)(2015), Re M (a child) (2017) EWCA  Glaser v United Kingdom (2001);
- impact of Article 8 ECHR on s8 orders in family law to be included in analysis.

- Re T (Change of surname) (1998);
- Payne v Payne (2001)
- welfare analysis)(2015), Re M (a child) (2017) EWCA  Glaser v United Kingdom (2001);
- impact of Article 8 ECHR on s8 orders in family law to be included in analysis.

- Paramount principle set out in s1(1) CA 1989;
- Presumption of parental involvement s(1)(2A);
- Principle of Non-intervention under s1(5) CA 1989;
- Delay principle under s1(2) CA 1989, S.1(3) CA 1989 checklist including requirements of a timetable to avoid delay, reference to case
|   | 9.6 Analyse financial relief available for children under the Children’s Act 1989 | 9.6 Analysis of financial relief under Sch 1 CA 1989, identifying possible applicants and range of orders available;
|   |     | • a clear understanding of the duration and guidelines courts observe in making financial orders;
|   |     | • application of financial provisions available for children under Sch 1 CA 1989;
| 9.7 | Apply the law on legal provision in relation to children to a given situation | 9.7 Application of the law to a complex scenario.
| 9.8 | Critically evaluate a given issue or situation to predict probable legal implications | 9.8 A reasoned opinion of likely legal implications, including remedies and defences, where appropriate.

This specification is for 2020 examinations
Additional information about the unit

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Unit aim(s)</th>
<th>To accredit a broad and detailed understanding of Family Law</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant national occupational standards (if appropriate)</td>
<td>This unit may provide relevant underpinning knowledge and understanding towards units of the Legal Advice standards; specifically, Unit 63 First Line Family Law Advice and Unit 64 Family Law Advice and Casework</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Details of the relationship between the unit and other standards or curricula (if appropriate)</td>
<td>Na</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Assessment requirements specified by a sector or regulatory body (if appropriate)</td>
<td>Na</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Endorsement of the unit by a sector or other appropriate body (if required)</td>
<td>Na</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Location of the unit within the subject/sector classification</td>
<td>15.5 Law and Legal Services</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Name of the organisation submitting the unit</td>
<td>CILEx (The Chartered Institute of Legal Executives)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Availability for delivery</td>
<td>1 September 2009</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

This specification is for 2020 examinations